

Kurzbeschreibung:

Short description: This seminar is for all students with interests in Filmmaking. The focus is set on production. Students will form a filmcrew and learn how to organize and produce a short film after a script. Screen writing is a small part of this seminar. The first step is the creation, revision and optimization of a script. Casting and location scouting will follow. We will shoot the film with DSLR Cameras and different lenses. The postproduction will be realized with Final Cut.

This is an english speaking seminar.
